

First Announcement:

One day workshop

“Research Orientation in Pharmaceutical Sciences”

Venue: Sinhgad College of Pharmacy, Vadgaon (Bk), Pune.

- Preamble:

Research is another word for gathering of information. It is the result of advancing knowledge created in the past. Research is NOT copying the work of others. It should have the betterment of society as its ultimate goal. Research in Pharmaceutical sciences is an applied type of research. As an arm of healthcare sector research in pharmaceutical sciences should have an application in improving quality of life through advances in drug therapy. Keeping this overview in mind Sinhgad College of Pharmacy organizes one day research orientation programme to inculcate research aptitude in students and faculty.
