A very large number of Public and Private Sector Organizations, Training Institutions Central and State Government participate in these programs, some of which have been held in collaboration with Planning Commission, Bureau of Public Enterprises and the Training Division of Department of Personnel, Government of India. The Society publishes a much sought after Quarterly Journal “Indian Journal of Training and Development” (IJTD) and offers 18 months Distance Learning Programme – Diploma in Training and Development, recognized by the Ministry of HRD, Govt of India.

HR Conclave

India is one of the biggest and best human resource providers in the world. This is agreed by all nations. Does it mean that we don't face challenges? In reality, since we face maximum challenges, we find maximum solutions. That is the reason we are highly recognized! More than any other challenges, Human Resource challenges are more critical and sensitive. While handling human variable, one cannot use specific formula or any one theory to arrive to solution. These are all permutations and combinations which derive most suitable solutions out of all alternatives.

HR conclave will unfold the existing HR practices, issues in industry and resolve them. Experts from various industries are brought together to create a platform of knowledge, awareness, exchange of ideas many more. The Learning community is certainly going to benefit because of such versatile speakers and their experiences.
