PIO – Person of Indian Origin:

A foreign citizen (other than a citizen of Pakistan or Bangladesh) is deemed to be of Indian Origin, if,

i) he, at any time, held an Indian passport,
ii) he or either of his parents or any of his grand parents was a citizen of India but virtue of the Constitution of India or Citizenship Act, 1956 (57 of 1955)

Born abroad.

Last degree from abroad.

Those who possess PIO card.