Sinhgad Institute of Hotel Management and Catering Technology was established in year 2003 at a picturesque campus of Lonavala in the lap of Sahyadri hills. The high grade infrastructure and amenities at the campus provides more than perfect ambience for making it excellent learning center. SIHMCT has established itself as a leading institute providing hospitality education and has successfully crafted illustrative careers for thousands of students. Our institute is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University and offers BHMCT & BSc.HS courses. Highly qualified faculty, state of the art infrastructure, modern learning resources and rigorous curriculum has delivered university rank holders for years. The well planned internship and industrial training program provides practical exposure in hospitality services for creating professionals from students.

The institute has received accolades from national and international hoteliers, institutions of repute and multinational hospitality chains.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

There is no bigger power than the power of knowledge and that power is motorized by continuous up-gradation. Education lays the foundation of progress in every institute, and in every society. It empowers the nation and allows its people to rule over a time. The magnitude of learning is immeasurable and enlarging as it contributes to socio economic development of the nation. A person's aptitude, talent or capability to perform is completely dependent on his level of understanding, education and knowledge, the up-gradation of knowledge develops professional attitude, creativity and innovation. It is need of the hour to get abreast with changes that catches the ever changing dynamics of social arrangements. To gauge the change, interaction with industry and experts is needed and such discourse helps in enthusiastically responding to ever changing phenomenon. It demands updated knowledge of Methods and Techniques in different areas of hospitality. With this aim, Sinhgad Institute of HMCT is organizing the State Level Seminar on “Emerging Theories and Techniques in Hospitality Operations” for Academicians, Researchers and Industry Professionals.
